

...Eddie
Sherman

HAWAII FIVE-0 (the multimillion-dollar budget picture) on schedule to be made here — as soon as the right star is signed. So sez executive producer George Litto. Litto's new company has a $250 million Chase Manhattan Bank line of credit to produce five films. First movie, The Crew, now shooting in Florida, stars Richard Dreyfuss and Burt Reynolds — a comedy about over-the-hill Mafia guys. "We have an excellent Five-0 script and are talking to some of the biggest names in the industry to play Steve McGarrett," said Litto via long distance. Interesting to note that Litto was the agent for Leonard Freeman, who created, wrote and produced the longest-running TV series in Hawaii ... Sundri Watumull, matriarch of the Watumull clan, a quiet lady with dignity, grace and style, recently passed away at 82. She lived in Hawaii since the end of WWII. Her husband, Rama, a very successful merchant, died in a plane crash in 1953. Singlehandedly, she ran the Rama Watumull Fund, giving out thousands in scholarships without ever seeking credit or limelight ... This modern world: Noel Araki (Cutter Ford lease agent) sold a Ford Expedition over the Internet to a Ted Liu — in China. Araki (computer aficionado) also sold a couple other cars the same way to folks living in California. One fella was relocating to Hawaii. Another purchased a car for his mom — who lives here ... Owing Uncle Sam: This experience happened to Joe Magaldi (deputy dir. of the city's Dept. of Transportation) when he was a finance officer (major) in the Marine Corps stationed in Danang, Vietnam: Troops were paid once a month — in cash (so they could play poker in the foxholes). To get $$$ to men stationed at Dong Ha (north) Joe once had a locker packed with $250,000 cash air-dropped. However, the Viet Cong got the money before our troops did. That amount of loot was on Magaldi's account with the Marines for 15 years, before it was

What's Up

A Guide
To Fun
On Oahu

Waikiki Rocks With Aloha

Pin on your Aloha Festivals ribbon and hit the streets of Waikiki Friday evening for island entertainment, food, crafts, leis and fun.

The 1999 Waikiki Ho'olaule'a features music and hula on nine stages sponsored by local radio stations and Waikiki hotels.

The royal court procession via carriage kicks off the festivities at 6:45 p.m., followed by entertainment by Kapa Hula Hawaii, Sudden Rush, Halau Hula Olana, Ho'onua, Leilani' Alama Hula Halau, Stardust, Honolulu, Island Jam, Augie Rey, the Army, Navy, Marine and Air Force bands, Ledward Kaapana and the Original Ikona, Kapena, Dennis Pavao, Kawai Cockett and many more.

Block party. Pure Heart rocks the Waikiki Ho'olaule'a Friday night

What's New Calendar

What's Here...

Classes	Special Events
Community	The Arts
Music	Volunteers
Hikes & Tours	Ongoing

Wednesdays; first day of classes for beginners is Sept. 29. (Register: 522-0827)

Dance Class.

New Movement Center, Kaimuki, call for time, $15 per class, $60 for six

Horses And Horsemanship.

Koko Crater Equestrian Center, Hawaii Kai, call for class times, $40 for single lessons, $25 for groups of five or more. In this class, participants learn how to care for, ride and train horses on two grass arenas, a